

CMA's VISION ON FUTURISTIC BANKING

Venue : J.N. TATA AUDITORIUM, IISc, BENGALURU

DATE : 27th AUGUST 2016

Bangalore Chapter had organized one day seminar on CMA's Vision on Futuristic Banking at J.N. Tata Auditorium, Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru on 27th August, 2016. Executive Director of Reserve bank of India, Smt. Meena Hemachandra delivered the Key Note Address. Central Council members CMA Amit Anand Apte, CMA Raju P. Iyer, CMA Dr. I Ashok, SIRC Chairman CMA V. Murali participated in the seminar. CMA Girish K. Chairman of the Bangalore Chapter welcomed the dignitaries and the delegates. CMA NR Ksaushik presented the overview of the seminar theme and proposed vote of thanks.

The major highlight of the session was the overwhelming response received from the Banking Sector. There were nearly 20 major banks which participated in this Seminar by sponsoring the delegates. The participants from banks side expressed high regards and appreciated the manner in which technical sessions were conducted. We got a very good feedback from the top level officers of the bank and some of them have expressed their willingness to partner with us and requested us to provide the professional support where ever it is required.

It was also the happiest moment to have CS Gopala Kirshna Hegde, Central Council Member, CS Nagendra Rao, SIRC Member and CS Hari Babu Tota, Chairman – Bengaluru Chapter as our guests representing the Institute of Company Secretaries of India who participated in this program.

The seminar had four Technical Sessions. CMA V. Murali, Chairman SIRC of ICAI, CMA K.M. Pai, Executive Director, M/s. Orient Bell Ltd., and CMA Lakshminarayana, Chief Endowment Officer, Azim Premji Foundation were the panelists for the first session “Tools for the emerging engines of economic growth”. Second session “A New Paradigm for sustainable and balanced growth” had Sri M.G. Bhat, General Manager (Retd.), Canara Bank, Sri N. Krishna Murthy, Chairman, Carl Bechem Lubricants Pvt. Ltd. And CMA B.R. Nagaraja, Management Consultant as its panelists. Third Session on “Improving the efficiency and profitability” had CMA Chidambara G, Director, Cyber, Sri B.B. Prasad, Deputy General Manager, State Bank of Travancore, and CMA Premanath Murthy, Management Consultant on the panel. Dr. B.V. Muralikrishna, joint Commissioner of Commercial taxes, Government of Karnataka spoke in the fourth session on “Impact of proposed GST on Banking Industry / General Industry & Trade”.

The seminar was attended by delegates from banks, industries, CMA professionals and CMA students. Seminar was anchored by CMA Sreepada H.R., Vice Chairman of Bangalore Chapter and CMA Ashwini P. Relentless and systematic effort of members of Bangalore Chapter other than managing committee members is laudable in conducting the seminar successfully in an organized manner.

This seminar was organized by the Bangalore Chapter in order to explore more areas in the Banking Sector for CMA Professionals and also to seek intermediary role between the lenders and the borrowers.
